

HELLO FROM WEDDING DIARIES...

I'm James, founder of Wedding Diaries and co-founder along with my wife Hannah of Wedding Diaries & Bride Diaries.

Photography is something I have always been incredibly passionate about. You will find me with a camera in hand whenever I have a spare moment (and often when I don't!)

Before I became a wedding photographer I photographed wildlife (@james.wildlifeworld). I'm still yet to come across a bride or groom that can move as quickly as a bird of prey or rutting stag! During my 10+ years as a wildlife photographer, I learned to capture those perfect moments which only last a split second. I can't express how important this is when capturing your day and moments which will only happen once in your lifetime! I'm talking about your first kiss, your confetti walk, your reactions to the speeches etc.

Since Wedding Diaries Group launched, I have shot weddings in some incredible locations from the stunning Amalfi Coast to the slopes of The French Alps to the iconic city landmarks in London. When it comes to your big day, I like to bring a touch of timeless, authentic luxury to your day whilst also ensuring you are able to enjoy your day to its full potential.

HELLO FROM BRIDE DIARIES...

I'm Hannah, founder of Bride Diaries and co-founder along with my husband James of Wedding Diaries Group Ltd.

Bride Diaries was born in June 2023. James and I had just tied the knot ourselves, and whilst sat over pasta and wine in Italy, we decided we never wanted the wedding bubble to end. We decided to bring our photography and content creation skills to the wedding industry and the rest is history.

Since launching our business, we have covered countless weddings all over the UK/Europe from spectacular lake-side weddings in Lake Como to snowy mountain weddings in the French Alps. Bride Diaries has featured in The Lane, Grazia UK, Rock My Wedding and more, all in under a year.

My mission is to combine luxury with relaxation when it comes to your wedding content. You can expect high quality documentary style coverage along with some editorial style highlights videos. I work closely with all of my clients to provide a 5* service and I tailor my services to your preferences and personality.
